PREMIUM COCONUT CANDLES

Wholesale Catalog / 2018-19

arôme

We at Arôme would like nothing more than to welcome you home.

"Home" is not defined by a structure, but rather the things, scents, and people found within it. Your favorite worn book with the dog-eared pages, that one childhood photo with the gold beveled frame, the familiar aroma of lightly browning spices.

To us, home is India. And we've taken inspiration from our beautiful country to bring you candles that we hope help you discover and create an ambiance that you'd love to come home to.

Bandhani Bowls

This collection takes its inspiration from a traditional Indian pattern called "Bandhini" - with a modern twist! These hand-painted ceramic bowls come in bold color swatches, with this uniquely Indian pattern subtly overlaid on top.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

At Veda & Co., we care about creating products that elevate the everyday. We strive to add a touch of sparkle to the mundane, transforming ordinary environments into impactful spaces through the power of fragrance.

Your sense of smell is a powerful tool used to shape lasting memories in your life. That's the inspiration we bring to our products – we want to help you create olfactory environments that become as much a part of your lasting memories as any other element of a space.

Whether it's brightening the mood for a lively party, or creating a peaceful ambience for meditation, our home fragrance products will help set the tone for any space, and look good while doing it. Each of our candles and mists is constructed using the finest all-natural waxes, wicks and oils, and perfumed with the highest quality custom fragrance blends. Our containers are thoughtfully designed to complement each collection, and to look exceptional in all settings.

The devil is always in the details for us, and we ensure that no aspect is overlooked in creating the most fabulous products for you to use and share.

Gift moments of delight to yourself and those you love. Gift Veda & Co.
