About Us

Omega is the last letter in Greek and we have often been asked the question – why are you called Omega?

We are called Omega for a reason. Human Psychology says we always Save the Best for the last. Isn't it? Well just look around us – the finishing run in a cricket match stays in mind rather than the opening boundary. We look forward to watch 'The Grand Finale', a Gymnast often performs a signature move at the end. In the field of interior designing, your search for a reliable partner ends with Omega Group.

So, isn't it apt that our group is called 'Omega?'
